

Chwith: Awyrlun o'r Gaer Fawr.

Left: Aerial view of Gaer Fawr.

DI2006_2003 NPRN 303579

Yn y 500 mlynedd cyn i'r Rhufeiniaid orchfygu Cymru, câi poblogaeth ffermio Ceredigion yn yr Oes Haearn eu rheoli gan hierarchaeth o benaethiaid a mân arweinwyr a reolai o fryngaerau a llocciau amddiffynedig. Roedd y bryngaerau hyn yn symbolau o awdurdod, yn llochesau ac yn llefydd i fasnachu a thalu gwrogaeth.

In the 500 years before the Romans conquered Wales Ceredigion's Iron Age farming population was ruled by a hierarchy of chiefs and petty chiefs whose bases were hillforts and defended enclosures which acted as symbols of authority, refuges and places of tribute collection and trade.

Uchod: Awyrlun o Ben y Bannau.

Above: Aerial View of Pen y Bannau.

DI2010_1076 NPRN 300704

DI2010_1045 NPRN 92236

Uchod: Awyrlun o Bendinas, Aberystwyth.

Above: Aerial view of Pen Dinas, Aberystwyth.

GTJ25069 NPRN 92243

Uchod: Awyrlun o Wersyll Pen Coed-foel.

Above: Aerial view of Pen Coed-foel Camp.

@T000967 NPRN 92249

Uchod: Adluniad o fryngaer yr Hen Gaer, Bow Street.

Above: Reconstruction drawing of Hen Gaer Hillfort, Bow Street.