

Location of photographs: (photographs of individual features can be located in relation to the features) Arrows show location and direction of photographs, small numbers are photo frame numbers